CHAPTER 2

OFFENSES AGAINST THE PEACE AND QUIET

SECTION

11-201. Disturbance of the peace.

11-202. Noise prohibited; exceptions.

11-201. Disturbance of the peace. No person within the city shall willfully disturb the peace of other by violent, obstreperous, or tumultuous conduct or actions, or by unseemly, obscene, or profane language or actions calculated to provoke a breach of the peace, or by loud and unusual noises, or by assaulting, striking, or fighting another, or by permitting any such conduct in or upon any house or premises owned by such person or under his control, so that others in the vicinity are disturbed thereby. (1979 Code, § 10-105)

11-202. Noise prohibited; exceptions. Subject to the provisions of this section, the creating of any unreasonably loud, disturbing, and unnecessary noise is prohibited. Noise of such character, intensity, or duration as to be detrimental to the life or health of any individual, or in disturbance of the public peace and welfare, is prohibited.

(1) Prohibited noises enumerated. The following acts, among others, are declared to be loud, disturbing, and unnecessary noises in violation of this section, but this enumeration shall not be deemed to be exclusive:

(a) Blowing horns. The sounding of any horn or signal device on any automobile, motorcycle, bus, or other vehicle while not in motion except as a danger signal if another vehicle is approaching, apparently out of control, or if in motion, only as a danger signal after or as brakes are being applied and deceleration of the vehicle is intended; the creation by means of any such signal device of any unreasonably loud or harsh sound; and the sounding of such device for an unnecessary and unreasonable period of time.

(b) Radios, phonographs, etc. The playing of any radio, phonograph, or any musical instrument or sound device, including but not limited to loudspeakers or other devices for reproduction or amplification of sound, either independently of or in connection with motion pictures, radios, or television, in such a manner or with such volume, particularly during the hours between 11:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M., as to annoy or disturb the quiet, comfort, or repose of persons in any office, hospital, or in any dwelling, hotel, or other type of residence, or of any person in the vicinity.

(c) Yelling, shouting, etc. Yelling, shouting, hooting, whistling, or singing on the public streets, particularly between the hours of 11:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M., or at any time or place so as to annoy or disturb the quiet, comfort, or repose of any person in any hospital, dwelling, hotel, or other type of residence, or of any person in the vicinity.

(d) Pets. The keeping of any animal, bird, or fowl which, by causing frequent or long continued noise, shall disturb the comfort or repose of any person in the vicinity.

(e) Use of vehicle. The use of any automobile, motorcycle, or vehicle so out of repair, so loaded, or in such manner as to cause loud and unnecessary grating, grinding, rattling, or other noise.

(f) Blowing whistles. The blowing of any steam whistle attached to any stationary boiler, except to give notice of the time to begin or stop work or as a warning of fire or danger, or upon request of proper city authorities.

(g) Exhaust discharge. To discharge into the open air the exhaust of any steam engine, stationary internal combustion engine, motor vehicle, or boat engine, except through a muffler or other device which will effectively prevent loud or explosive noises therefrom.

(h) Building operations. The erection (including excavation), demolition, alteration, or repair of any building in any residential area or section or the construction or repair of streets and highways in any residential area or section, other than between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M. on week days, except in case of urgent necessity in the interest of public health and safety, and then only with a permit from the building inspector granted for a period while the emergency continues not to exceed thirty (30) days. If the building inspector should determine that the public health and safety will not be impaired by the erection, demolition, alteration, or repair of any building or the excavation of streets and highways between the hours of 6:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M., and if he shall further determine that loss or inconvenience would result to any party in interest through delay, he may grant permission for such work to be done between the hours of 6:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M. upon application being made at the time the permit for the work is awarded or during the process of the work.

(i) Noises near schools, hospitals, churches, etc. The creation of any excessive noise on any street adjacent to any hospital or adjacent to any school, institution of learning, church, or court while the same is in session.

(j) Loading and unloading operations. The creation of any loud and excessive noise in connection with the loading or unloading of any vehicle or the opening and destruction of bales, boxes, crates, and other containers.

(k) Noises to attract attention. The use of any drum, loudspeaker, or other instrument or device emitting noise for the purpose of attracting attention to any performance, show, sale or display of merchandise.

(1) Loudspeakers or amplifiers on vehicles. The use of mechanical loudspeakers or amplifiers on trucks or other moving or standing vehicles for advertising or other purposes.

(2) Exceptions. None of the terms or prohibitions of this section shall apply to or be enforced against:

(a) City vehicles. Any vehicle of the city while engaged upon necessary public business.

(b) Repair of streets, etc. Excavations or repairs of bridges, streets, or highways at night, by or on behalf of the city, the county, or the state, when the public welfare and convenience renders it impossible to perform such work during the day.

(c) Noncommercial and nonprofit use of loudspeakers or amplifiers. The reasonable use of amplifiers or loudspeakers in the course of public addresses which are noncommercial in character and in the course of advertising functions sponsored by nonprofit organizations. However, no such use shall be made until a permit therefor is secured from the recorder. Hours for the use of an amplifier or public address system will be designated in the permit so issued and the use of such systems shall be restricted to the hours so designated in the permit. (1979 Code, § 10-118)

11-601. Refrigerators, iceboxes, etc.--removal of doors, etc., prior to abandonment. No person shall abandon, leave, or permit to remain outside any dwelling, building, or any other structure or within any unoccupied or abandoned building, dwelling, or any other structure under his control or in any place accessible to children any abandoned, unattended, or discarded refrigerator, icebox, or other container which has an air-tight door or lid, with a snaplock or other locking device which cannot be released from the inside, without first removing such door or lid from such refrigerator, icebox, or other container.

Any refrigerator, icebox, or other container described in this section which is found in violation of the provisions of this section is hereby declared to be a nuisance. (1979 Code, § 10-132)

11-602. Wells, cisterns, excavations, etc.--protection of persons and animals.¹ Any person owning, controlling, or in possession of real estate within the city on which is situated any well, cistern, pit, or excavation shall fill the same up or keep the same securely enclosed or covered so as to prevent any persons or animals from falling therein or being injured thereby. (1979 Code, § 10-139)

11-603. Locating posters, bills, signs, etc. in street rights of way or upon other public or utility owned property. No person shall locate or post any posters, bills, or other printed matter within public rights of way except as follows:

(1) Legal notices. Posting of legal notices as may be required by governmental authority is permitted.

(2) Permanent signs. Permanent directional and informational signs are permitted only upon receiving prior written approval of the city administrator, which approval will be considered pursuant to policy adopted by resolution of the city governing body as to the location, type, content, dimensions, etc., as same may from time to time be promulgated.

(3) Temporary signs or printed materials. Temporary printed materials advertising or informing of events of limited duration as political campaigns, auction sales, and yard sales are not permitted except in public rights of way exterior to the paved surface of same; or exterior to the curb, if any, or if no curb, between sidewalk and paved surface.

(a) No posting shall be permitted prior to twenty eight (28) days before commencement of the event.

(b) The number of signs or other printed materials posted advertising or informing of an event shall be limited in number to twenty-five (25).

(c) No such sign or printed material shall exceed three (3) feet in width and three (3) feet in length, nor shall any such sign or printed material exceed three feet six inches (3' 6") in height as measured from ground level.

¹Municipal code reference
Stagnant water: § 13-105.

(4) No signs or printed materials shall be located upon power poles, or other publicly or utility owned upright, pole, rails, walls or other surfaces. (1979 Code, § 10-119, as replaced by Ord. #2774, Sept. 1994)

11-604. Consent of city and bond prerequisite to posting on public property. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to post any bills, advertisements or other printed materials on any public or utility owned property without the prior written consent of the city.

(1) Bond. A minimum cash bond of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be required for the first through the fifth signs advertising or announcing any event or other matter (except yard sales), and the bond shall be increased by ten dollars ($10.00) for each additional sign in excess of five, not to exceed a total of twenty-five signs and a bond of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00). In the case of yard sales, no bond shall be required. The bond shall be returned in full when all signs have been timely removed.

(2) Permit fee. A non-refundable permit fee of one dollar ($1.00) shall be charged for each sign permitted hereunder to be posted. Upon issuance of permit(s), each sign shall be stamped or marked by other suitable means indicating the required removal date.

(3) Duration of posting. No sign shall be posted for more than twenty-eight (28) total days. Regardless of the number of days any sign may have been posted, all signs must be removed within three (3) days from the final date of the event, and in the case of political campaigns or referenda the date of event shall be the official day of rejection or referendum. If such sign is not removed within the time required, it may be removed by the city and the portion of the bond relating to that sign shall be forfeited. (1979 Code, § 10-120, as replaced by Ord. #2774, Sept. 1994)

11-605. Tearing down lawfully posted notices. No person shall tear or pull down any handbill, notice, or other writing posted by authority of the city. (1979 Code, § 10-121)

11-606. Assemblages for unlawful purposes. It shall be unlawful for two or more persons to assemble with an intent, or, being assembled, mutually to agree to do any unlawful act with force or violence against the property of another or the property of the city, or against the peace or to the terror of others, or to make any movement or preparation therefor. (1979 Code, § 10-101)

11-607. Begging prohibited. Any person who, within the city, wanders about and begs on the streets or from house to house, or sits, stands, or takes a position in any public place and begs from passersby, either by words, the exhibition of a sign, by gesture, by singing or playing any musical instrument, or by exhibiting such articles as shoe strings, lead pencils, or cheap merchandise of any description in such public places shall be guilty of misdemeanor. (1979 Code, § 10-102)

11-608. Boundary markers--removal, injury, etc., prohibited. No person shall maliciously take down, remove, or injure any monument erected or any tree marked as the boundary of the county or of the city, or of any lot or tract of land within the city; nor, shall any person destroy, deface, or alter the marks of any such monument or tree. (1979 Code, § 10-103)

11-609. Disorderly houses. No person shall keep a disorderly house or permit, in his house or in any house under his control or possession, any person to be drunk or boisterous or noisy in behavior. (1979 Code, § 10-104)

11-610. Misdemeanors--aiding or abetting. It shall be unlawful for any person to aid, assist, or abet in the commission of any act declared by this code to be unlawful or which is prohibited by this code. Any person found guilty of violating this section shall be subject to the same penalties fixed for the commission of such act. (1979 Code, § 10-117)

11-611. Indecent, lewd, etc., behavior. No person shall engage in any indecent, lewd, or lascivious conduct within the city. (1979 Code, § 10-111)

11-612. Indecent, obscene, etc., publications--sales, exhibition, etc., prohibited. No person shall exhibit, sell, trade, give away, or offer to sell, trade, or give away any lewd, obscene, or indecent book, picture, paper, or other thing within the city. (1979 Code, § 10-112)

11-613. Indecent or lewd performances. No person shall perform, give, attempt to perform or give, or assist in the performance or giving of any indecent or lewd performance or show in the city. (1979 Code, § 10-113)

11-614. Loitering or congregating on streets--duty to move on at direction of police. Any person or persons loitering or standing or any person or persons on any street, sidewalk, or curb shall move on or disperse when required to do so by any police officer, and shall cease to occupy such position on the street, sidewalk, or curb. (1979 Code, § 10-114)

11-615. Loitering at public educational institutions. It shall be unlawful for any person having no lawful business to pursue at a public educational institution of the city or having acted in a manner disrupting or disturbing in the normal educational functions of the institution to refuse or fail to leave the buildings, grounds, or facilities of the institution after being requested to do so by an authorized employee of the institution or by any police officer. (1979 Code, § 10-115)

11-616. Masks or disguises; acts of terror, etc., prohibited. The following acts are hereby prohibited within the city: (1) The wearing of a mask or any other device which conceals the features by any person or group of persons upon any of the public streets or alleys of the cities or upon the premises of any citizen of the city.

The following are exempted from the provisions of this subsection:

(a) Children under the age of ten (10) years.

(b) Workers while engaged in work wherein a face covering is necessary for health and/or safety reasons.

(c) Persons wearing gas masks in civil defense drills and exercises or emergencies.

(d) Any person having a special permit issued by the city recorder to wear a traditional holiday costume.

(2) The doing of any act or the use of any device or symbol on the part of any person upon any of the public streets or alleys of the city or upon the premises of any citizen of the city which may be reasonable calculated to put any person in fear of his personal safety, the safety of his family, or the safety of his property. (1979 Code, § 10-116)

11-617. Destroying, etc., property of city or other persons. No person shall willfully break, tear, or otherwise injure any property of the city in the city prison, or the personal property of any peace officer or of any prisoner in such prison. (1979 Code, § 10-126)

11-618. Property--injuring, defacing, etc., buildings or fixtures. No person shall wantonly injure, deface, or disfigure any building or fixture attached thereto or the enclosures thereof, whether such building is publicly or privately owned. (1979 Code, § 10-127)

11-619. Destroying, secreting, etc., property or papers of others. No person shall maliciously destroy, injure, or secrete any goods, chattels, or valuable papers of any other person. (1979 Code, § 10-128)

11-620. Injury, etc., to monuments, works of art, plants, etc. No person shall maliciously or wantonly injure, deface, destroy any monument, work of art, building, fence or other structure; nor shall any person destroy, deface, or injure any ornamental tree, shrub, or other plant on any private ground, in any cemetery, or on or in any street or other public place in the city or in or on any public or private way or cemetery. (1979 Code, § 10-129)

11-621. Prostitution. No person in the city shall:

(1) Engage in prostitution.

(2) Aid or abet prostitution.

(3) Procure or solicit for purposes of prostitution.

(4) Keep or set up a house of ill fame, house of assignation, brothel, or bawdyhouse.

(5) Receive any person for purposes of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution into any vehicle, conveyance, place, structure, or building.

(16) Permit any person to remain for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution in any vehicle, conveyance, place, structure, or building.

(7) Lease or rent or contract to lease or rent any vehicle, conveyance, place, structure, building, or any part thereof, knowing or with good reason to know, that it is intended to be used for any of the purposes prohibited by this section.

(8) Attempt to do any of the acts prohibited by this section.

For the purpose of this section, the term "assignation" shall include the making of any appointment or engagement for prostitution or an act in furtherance of such appointment or engagement. The term "prostitution" shall include the giving or receiving of the body for sexual intercourse for hire or for licentious sexual intercourse without hire. (1979 Code, § 10-130)

11-622. Prowling and peeping. It shall be unlawful for any person, in the day or night, to prowl or loiter about the property of others without being able to give a good account of himself, or to prowl or loiter about any dwelling or business house, outhouse, or other building for the purpose of spying or peeping therein. (1979 Code, § 10-131)

11-623. Religious and other lawful assemblages--disturbance prohibited. No person shall disturb or disquiet any religious worship or any other lawful assemblage of people by rude, profane, boisterous, or indecent behavior or language. (1979 Code, § 10-133)

11-624. Shoplifting. Any person who shall willfully take possession of any foods, wares, or merchandise not exceeding the value of fifty dollars ($50.00) offered for sale by any store or other mercantile establishment with the intention of converting the same to his own use without paying the purchase price thereof shall be guilty of the offense of shoplifting and shall be punished in accordance with the general penalty clause for this code.

Any person willfully concealing unpurchased goods or merchandise of any store or other mercantile establishment either on the premises or outside the premises of such store shall be prima facie presumed to have so concealed such article with the intention of converting the same to his own use without paying the purchase price thereof within the meaning of the preceding paragraph, and the finding of such unpurchased goods or merchandise concealed upon such person or among the belongings of such person shall be prima facie evidence of willful concealment, and if such person conceals or causes to be concealed such unpurchased goods or merchandise upon the person or among the belongings of another, the finding of the same shall also be prima facie evidence of willful concealment on the part of the person so concealing such goods. (1979 Code, § 10-134)

11-625. Snakes and reptiles--handling, etc. No person shall display, exhibit, handle, or use any dangerous or poisonous snake or reptile in such manner as will endanger the life or health of any person. (1979 Code, § 10-135)

11-626. Failure to return library materials. It shall be unlawful for any person to detain or fail to return to any public library located in the city any book, periodical, map, newspaper, plate, engraving, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, picture, clipping, phonograph record, moving picture film, black and white or color slide film or film strip, tape cassette, or other property belonging to said public library or libraries provided for the public education, use, and welfare of the citizens in the city and community, after the lapse of thirty (30) days from the date of posting by certified mail a notice addressed to such person at the last address furnished the public library, which notice may be given at any time after the date of which such person should have returned the lent property in accordance with the rules of said public library; provided, however, that no penalty shall be imposed in any case where restitution of value as determined by the appropriate library board or its designated agents or employees shall have been made prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) day period; nor in any case where the return of such materials enumerated above or other property belonging to any public library in the city has been rendered impossible by cause beyond the control of the borrower. (1979 Code, § 10-141)

11-627. Use of fictitious name or address to obtain library materials. It shall be unlawful to give a fictitious or incorrect name or address to any public library in the city in order to obtain possession or use of any book, periodical, map, newspaper, plate, engraving, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, picture, clipping, phonograph record, moving picture film, black and white or color slide film or film strip, tape, cassette, or other property belonging to any public library in the city. (1979 Code, § 10-142)

11-628. Mutilation of library property. It shall be unlawful for any person to cut, write upon, injure, deface, tear, or destroy any book, periodical, map, newspaper, plate, engraving, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, picture, clipping, phonograph record, moving picture film, black and white or color slide film strip, tape, cassette, or other property belonging to any public library in the city. (1979 Code, § 10-143)

11-629. Violations. Violation of §§ 11-627 through 11-629 shall be an offense punishable in accordance with the general penalty clause for this code.

Penalties collected under this and the preceding three sections shall be deposited by the city recorder in a special account set up for this purpose. Each year, the funds in this account shall be drawn out and turned over to the Morristown-Hamblen Library. (1979 Code, § 10-144)

11-630. Possession of marijuana. It shall be unlawful for any person to possess less than one-half ounce of marijuana within the corporate limits of the City of Morristown, Tennessee. (1979 Code, § 10-145)
